#1

2021 Domaine Michel Juillot Chardonnay Bourgogne $36

This bright beauty is the perfect starting point on your Burgundy journey. Gorgeous body, savory, silky salinity, fresh citrus and sliced to serve apple notes, vibrant and refreshing. Unsettling depth here too.

#2

2021 Domaine Michel Juillot
Mercurey 1er Cru Blanc $60

Perhaps you've not experienced a Premier Cru Chardonnay from Mercurey? With this wine you start with the best. Lovely texture, silky freshness, creamy acidity, subtle richness, mineral-tension, a lingering finish, youthful power presented perfectly.

#3

2021 Domaine Vincent et Francois
Jouard Chassagne-Montrachet
Vieilles Vignes $80

Reviewing our notes one word stands out; actually three, written quickly and in haste: Worthy Worthy Worthy! One of the best examples of a Chassagne under $100 we've experienced in ages. Pure, fresh, citrus wrapped in apple/pear notes, spice, stony (yup!), a richness balanced zen-perfect. Intense finish. Last tasting notes written were, "wow".

#4

2021 Rapet Père et Fils Savignylès-Beaune Aux Fournaux $58

Stinging acidity melds with tantalizing red berry and rhubarb notes. Then dark berry, black cherry and background notes of black tea and orange peel emerge. Great structure and rapport with an energy that suggests this one will age effortlessly (but who can wait!) Fascinating Pinot.

#5

2020 Domaine Michel Juillot
Mercurey 1er Cru Clos des
Barraults $56

Sometimes when we're so excited about a wine our notes read like this: "mushroomearthreddarknose" followed by "savoryjuiceintense mineral" and "longwonderfulgoodbye". Decipher as you may. Better yet just open a bottle and dive right in.

#6

2021 Domaine Collotte Marsannay
Les Champsalomon $55

A tasting event (food/wine) can hinge on that last bite/sip. Finish with a flouse and everything that's come before is pushed into a dark corner.

Finish with a boon and everything that came before makes sense. This wine is your boon. Give it time to open up (3-4 hours) and taste the magic that presents itself: an utterly captivating wine.

Please feel free to purchase these bottles individually.
However if you're in the mood for six great (and reasonably priced) Burgundies, we recommend picking up a six-pack (or two). It's specially priced too!

The Burgundy Six-Pack is on sale for $299 (usually $345) until we sell out.
