We're Nuts For Nebbiolo

There's been a lot of talk about Nebbiolo this past week. Perhaps because one of the wine groups based their luncheon around the grape. We went to re-taste a few of ours here at Renegade and found these three standouts as each wine has a unique, individual expression of the grape.

2021 Giuseppe Nada Langhe Nebbiolo $25

A medium bodied, fresh and savory wine with notes of dark plus red berry fruit, hints of fresh earth, mild tannins adding structure and depth, and finishing with quite the long finale.

2022 Castello di Verduno Langhe Nebbiolo $34

For those looking for a light bodied, chill-able Nebbiolo with plenty of fresh, savory character look no further. All the violets, red cherries, and silky-satiny tannins you could dream of; a wine that pairs extraordinarily well with cacio e pepe or carbonara pasta.

2022 La Spinetta Langhe Nebbiolo $34

Bright ruby red in color with aromas of red and blue fruit, rose and white pepper. Fresh and elegant, with delicate floral and spicy notes. Tannins are velvety with a finish that's precise and persistent. If you're tasting all three wines during the course of a dinner or evening, serve this one third (with perhaps pasta bolognese?).

If you would like to spend an evening with Nebbiolo we have bundled these wines at a very favorable price:

$80 for the three bottles

(usually $93)

It's a three-pack for the ages!

...and as a delightful footnote all three wines are organic!
