GRAND CRU BLANC DE BLANCS AT THEIR BEST!

Let's begin with the exciting news that Pierre Peters is back in stock. Then let's double down with Billecart-Salmon and their Grand Cru Blanc de Blancs. Both are insanely fantastic; great bubbles, lively energy, and a great way to start an evening (or brunch).

Pierre Peters Cuvée de Réserve comes in at $75 while Billecart-Salmon Brut Blanc de Blancs is $99. You cannot go wrong either way.

Shimmering

2021 Lieu Dit Rosé (Santa Ynez Valley)

$26

Pale pink, yet vibrant in aromatics - wild strawberry and white nectarine on the nose. Soft, but fresh and bright on the palate with an elegantly light mineral finish. This is one lively Rose that's 100% Cabernet Franc.

Local Biodynamics

2021 Amevive Albarino

(Santa Barbara County) $30

This wine comes entirely from Martian Ranch Vineyard in Alisos Canyon AVA. Martian Ranch has been farmed biodynamically since its inception and has been Demeter certified since 2010.

Amevive translates to lively soul and boy do Alice Anderson's wine have soul.

This wine jumps out of the glass, aromas of sunny gardens with fresh blooms and a couple fruit trees swaying in the breeze. It's bright, refreshing, and very tasty!

Original G.

2017 Dehlinger Pinot Noir Altamont

(Sonoma County, Russian River Valley)

$64

Since 1975 Tom and Carole Dehlinger have been crafting some of the best Pinot Noirs in the Russian River Valley. This was our first taste of their wines in years and it was reminiscent of top wines from Rochioli and Dumol.

This is a wine of real breadth. Dark cherry, plum, lavender, spice; rich, plush and enveloping, Classic RRV Pinot!

The Magic Within

2020 Anne Sophie Dubois Fleurie Les Cocottes

(France, Burgundy, Beaujolais, Fleurie)

$34

Anne-Sophie Dubois has mastered the art of crushable Beaujolais. Her love for Gamay led her to Fleurie, where she now organically farms eight hectares of vines. Anne-Sophie says that wine is "a sum of details" and for her this means manual harvesting, meticulous sorting, and spontaneous fermentation. 'Les Cocottes' is loaded with flavors of tart cherries, pomegranate juice, and white pepper. Drink up!

Island Wine

2017 Suertes del Marqués El Chibirique

(Spain, Canary Islands, Tenerife, Valle de la Orotava) $46

This wine is made from 80+ year old Listan Negro grapes in the Canary Islands in volcanic ash soil. Dark fruits, leather, damp earth, with some funk on the nose (but in a good way). Decant for a short time then enjoy with something fresh of the grill.

Pra-ctically Perfect

2015 Prà Amarone della Valpolicella Morandina

(Italy, Veneto, Valpolicella) $85

Pra does a wonderful job of delivering the intensity of Amarone, but in a savory and balanced style that we find quite attractive.

"Crushed cherries and stone dust evolve into notes of plum sauce, cloves, sage and dark chocolate. It's velvety in texture yet lifted in feel, coming across as juicy at times, with vibrant acids that excite the palate with mineral-tinged red fruits and sweet spices. This becomes darker and more intense through the finale, revealing tart black currants, herbal tones and a hint of coffee. There's simply so much going on here, with a structure that can carry the 2015 in the cellar for well over a decade. What's more, it shows no sign of its 16.5% abv!" - Vinous

When we tasted the wine we too were in awe that there was no clue on the palate or the finish that the abv was 16.5% Not sure how they do it but wow!
