Last Call:

These are the last cases of Story of Soil's Rose of Pinot Noir and Gamay. After we sell out the next vintage will not arrive until 2024.

The Story of Soil Rose of Pinot Noir hits all the right notes. Refreshing, savory, bright, absolutely delicious ($30). Sourced from Gold Coast vineyard, planted in 1989, in Santa Maria this wine is quite the gem.

The Story of Soil Gamay sourced from organic Martian Vineyard is another out-of-the-park homerun ($42). Serve with a slight chill to start your Summer evening off right. In a word: Gorgeous!

We have slightly less than 3 cases of each wine in stock so call / email to reserve your bottles.

New Arrivals:

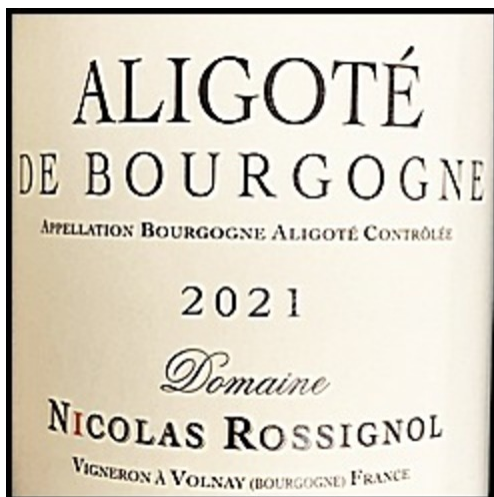

Hip, Hip, Rose

2022 Mas De Cadenet Côtes de Provence Sainte-Victoire Rosé
(France, Provence, Côtes de Provence Sainte-Victoire) $26

This light pink wine with a beautiful mineral freshness, reveals delicate aromas of citrus, red fruits and flowers. The limestone soil brings balance and elegance, with a crispy length. A persistent wine offering a fruity and savory finish. If you want to upgrade your Rose try this one.

Serious

2021 Nicolas Rossignol Bourgogne-Aligoté
(France, Burgundy) $38

From vines planted in 1933 this is a seriously great white wine from Burgundy, and it's not even Chardonnay. It's that often forgotten about grape Aligote. We've tasted many over the years and no one produces a more complete, complex, structured, serious Aligote than Nicolas Rossignol. We've enjoyed this with roast chicken, marinated and grilled portobellos, sushi (Arigato), and all on its own. Marvelous wine.

If You Want Peace...

2022 La Colombière Vin de France SI VIS PACEM PARA VINUM

(France, Vin de France) $24

As the label states, If you want peace, prepare wine. And this is a great wine to find that peace: A red wine that's 100% Negrette.

First, we've never had a wine that's 100% Negrette. Second, it was love at first sip. On the lighter side, destined to be served with a bit of a chill, dark berry fruits mingle effortlessly with red. There's a punch of acidity to brighten the palate and a crunchy, savory, spiced finish that requests more sips.

Book Club Wine

2021 Vigneti del Sole Montepulciano d'Abruzzo (Italy, Abruzzi, Montepulciano d'Abruzzo) $12.50

We love finding wines that brim with quality but don't punish the pocketbook. Here's our latest find.

A wine from Abruzzo that out drinks its meager price tag. Red and purple fruit, beautiful structure with mild tannins that caress the palate. We are pairing this one with crispy chicken tacos tonight!

Coastal Sangiovese

2021 Ghiaccio Forte Morellino di Scansano (Italy, Tuscany, Maremma, Morellino di Scansano)
$18.50

The vineyards, planted on the steep slopes of the Aquilaia Mountains and on the gentle hills of the Albegna Valley, are located in the southernmost tip of Tuscany, overlooking the Mediterranean Sea.

This wine has some personality! Fuller bodied but with a silky side, hints of juicy dark fruit, red berry notes, warm earth, and a wow-of-a-finish. This is our go-to with pasta and red sauce or paired with a Revolver Pizza and re-runs of The Sopranos.
